

COLLABORATIONS THAT GET RESULTS

Increasing complexity

Replacement

The concept of independence must be replaced by a focus on interdependence.

Increasing intensity

Collaboration is a mutually beneficial and well-defined relationship entered into by two or more organizations to achieve results they are more likely to achieve together than alone.

Partners focus on the way in which the current system can be improved by changing individual organization policies and procedures.

The organizations believe they are interdependent.

Each organization has a unique role.

Commitment to mutual goals:

- Jointly developed structure
- Shared responsibility
- Shared resources and rewards
